(hereinafter referred to as the "Employer")

PARTY OF THE FIRST PART

AND THE: -

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES
LOCAL NO. 798
(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

PARTY OF THE SECOND PART

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS it is the desire of both parties to this Agreement to maintain existing harmonious relationships between the Employer and the employees and to recognize the mutual value of joint discussion and negotiation in all matters pertaining to promote the well-being, morale and security of those employees included in the bargaining unit;

AND WHEREAS the parties to the second part have formed a Union, hereinafter called the "Union";

AND WHEREAS the Employer recognizes the Union as the sole agency for collective bargaining for all the Powell River Public Library employees for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining authority under the Labour Code of British Columbia;

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that the parties hereto, in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter contained, AGREE EACH WITH THE OTHER AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE 1 - DEFINITIONS

1.01 Employee

Where used in this agreement, the term "employee" means any person defined as such by the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia who is employed by the employer save and except those persons excluded from the bargaining unit by the Labour Relations Board or by mutual agreement of the parties.

1.02 Regular Full-Time Employee

Where used in this agreement, the term "regular full-time employee" means an employee who has successfully completed the requirements of the probationary period and who works a regular full-time work schedule as defined in Article 16.01.

1.03 Regular Part-Time Employee

Where used in this agreement, the term "regular part-time employee" means an employee who has successfully completed the requirements of the probationary period and who works a regular weekly schedule that is less than full-time as defined in Article 16.01.

1.04 Regular Employee or Regular Workforce

Where used in this agreement, the term "regular employee" or "regular work force" means the Employer's full complement of regular full-time employees and regular part-time employees.

1.05 Casual Employee

- (a) Casual employee means an employee of the bargaining unit not employed as a regular employee and may be employed for the following purposes:
 - (i) relief of a regular employee on vacation leave, sick leave, maternity leave, long-term disability of less than one (1) year duration, workers' compensation of less than one (1) year duration, compassionate leave, education leave or other leaves,
 - (ii) non-repetitive projects of less than one year duration. However, in the event the project employment is extended beyond the one (1) year period, at the one (1) year anniversary date the employee shall be converted to regular status pursuant to Article 1.02 or 1.03 above.

- (iii) work of an emergency nature,
- (b) Casual employees include all Pages and Project Assistants.
- (c) Casual employees shall not be eligible for any of the benefits and perquisites of this Agreement including, without limiting generality: Article 19, Holidays; Article 20, Vacations; Article 21, Sick Leave; Article 22 (except 22.05 & 22.06), Leave of Absence; Articles 23.10, 23.11 and 23.12; Article 24, Retirement (except as required by statute); and Article 26, Employee Benefits. By way of clarification, casual employees are covered by the following Agreement articles: 1, 3 (except article 3.02), 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13.06, 16, 17, 22.04(b), 22.06, 23, 27, 30, 32, 34, 35 and Schedule "A".
- (d) Article 13 notwithstanding, except article 13.06, casual employees shall earn seniority on the basis of cumulative hours worked, which they may only exercise for purposes of applying for posted regular positions pursuant to article 14.02. Seniority notwithstanding, casual employees shall be offered casual work on an equitable basis so as to ensure that all casual employees receive an equitable opportunity to perform such work.
- (e) Casual employees shall be paid twelve percent (12%) of their gross earnings on each pay cheque in lieu of all statutory requirements and all of the benefits and perquisites of this Agreement to which they are not eligible.

1.06 Probationary Employee

Where used in this agreement, the term "probationary employee" is any employee who has not successfully completed the requirements of the probationary period pursuant to Article 14.03 (c).

1.07 Regular Part-Time Employee Benefits

Regular part-time employees shall be covered by all provisions of the collective agreement that apply to a regular full-time employee, except that:

- (a) The level of statutory holiday, vacation and sick leave benefits shall be prorated on the basis of hours actually worked.
- (b) Regular part-time employees whose regularly scheduled hours are fewer than 17.5 hours per week shall not be eligible for Medical Insurance and Dental Plan benefits. Such employees may elect to be paid the percentage in lieu of benefits set forth under Article 1.05(e)iii – by electing to take this percentage, the employee forfeits all benefit entitlements under Article 26, vacation entitlements under Article 20, statutory holiday pay under Article 19, and sick leave and other such benefits under Article 21.

1.08 Plural or Masculine Terms

Throughout this Agreement, whenever the feminine gender or singular number is used, it shall be construed as meaning the masculine gender or the plural number, or vice versa, as the context requires.

ARTICLE 2 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2.01 Management Rights

Without restricting the rights of the employees under the terms of this Agreement, the Union recognizes the right of the Employer to manage its affairs and operations and to direct its working forces including the right to hire, suspend, discharge, promote, demote, discipline, layoff or transfer any employee, and the right to determine job content, evaluate jobs and assign work, and the foregoing shall not be deemed to exclude other functions of management not specifically covered in this Agreement, subject to the provisions of Article 10.

ARTICLE 3 - RECOGNITION AND NEGOTIATIONS

3.01 Negotiations

It is mutually agreed between the parties hereto that in any negotiations for the renewal or revision of the Agreement, the representatives appointed by each side shall not exceed five (5) members per side around the conference table.

3.02 Work of the Bargaining Unit

- (a) Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit, EXCEPT for purposes of instruction, experimenting, or in emergencies when regular employees are not available, AND PROVIDED that the act of performing the aforementioned operations, in itself, does not reduce the hours of work or pay of any employee.
- (b) Notwithstanding the above, the Chief Librarian or the Assistant Chief Librarian in the absence of the Chief Librarian may perform bargaining unit duties on an intermittent basis, provided that this only occurs on a supernumerary basis. The Chief Librarian and Assistant Chief Librarian may also work regular reference shifts, so long as this does not reduce the hours of work or pay of any member of the bargaining unit.

3.03 No Other Agreements

Except with the unanimous approval of the employee, the Employer and the Union, no employee shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives, which may conflict with the terms of this Agreement.

For its part the Union agrees that the above circumstances represent just cause for discipline.

ARTICLE 8 - LABOUR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

8.01 Labour-Management Committee

Each party shall notify the other party, in writing, of the items that it is putting on the agenda, at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the meeting in question to allow time for preparation. Only items on the agenda shall be discussed at committee meetings unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The Employer shall prepare the final agenda for Committee meetings.
- (d) Four (4) regular Labour-Management Committee meetings [one (1) each business quarter] will be held each year, provided there are agenda items to be discussed at any such meeting. The date and time for these regular committee meetings shall be established by the parties on a mutually agreeable basis by January 30th of each calendar year.

The Employer shall grant permission for such absence from the job and shall not unnecessarily delay substitution when required.
- (b) It is agreed that it is not the purpose of this provision to give Stewards and Officers of the Union the right to leave their jobs for purposes other than the investigation of specific grievances and the Employer has access to the grievance procedure if it feels this provision is being abused.

8.03 Representative of Canadian Union of Public Employees

The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of representative(s) of the Canadian Union of Public Employees or any other advisor(s) when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. ARTICLE 9 - RESOLUTIONS AND REPORTS OF THE EMPLOYER

The Union will be given ten (10) calendar days to consider the reports or recommendations and discuss them with the Employer, if necessary.

9.02 Copies of Resolutions

The Employer shall notify the Union and give a copy to the Library Unit Shop Steward or alternate, in writing, within ten (10) calendar days of the adoption of any policy or regulation that affects the terms, benefits, or perquisites of employment for members of the Union.

10.02 Procedure

- (a) Step 1: Within twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the incident giving rise to the grievance, or from the time the employee should reasonably have been aware of the incident giving rise to the grievance, the employee and a shop steward shall discuss the matter with Chief Librarian or the Assistant Chief Librarian in the absence of the Chief Librarian. If an agreement is reached at this step, a joint report detailing the problem and agreed solution shall be submitted to the Employer and the Union.
- (b) Step 2: If no settlement is reached at Step 1, the aggrieved employee shall submit the grievance in writing to the Chief Librarian or the Assistant Chief Librarian in the absence of the Chief Librarian, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the discussion provided at Step 1. The recipient shall meet with the employee and Union Grievance Committee, or other representative of the Union, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the receipt of the grievance, in an attempt to reach a satisfactory settlement.
- (c) Step 3: If no settlement is reached at Step 2, a meeting shall be arranged between the senior representatives of the Union and Management, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the last meeting at Step 2. Either party may be represented by a person employed by an organization to which it is affiliated at meetings held at this Step.
- (d) Step 4: If settlement is not reached through the foregoing procedures, the grievance may be referred to an Arbitration Board. When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, such request shall be made to the other party, in writing, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the last meeting held at Step 3.

10.03 Extension of time limits

The parties may, by mutual agreement in writing, extend the time limits mentioned above, provided such extension is requested prior to the expiry of the time allowed.

10.04 Grievance Committee

The Grievance Committee of the Union shall be composed of not more than three (3) employees.

10.05 Policy Grievance

When a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation of the Collective Agreement currently in place occurs, or where the Employer or the Grievance Committee of the Union believe an alleged grievance which would affect employees in general has arisen, such grievance shall be submitted under Clause 10.02, Step 3 above.

ARTICLE 11 - ARBITRATION

11.01 Composition of Board of Arbitration

- (a) A board of arbitration composed of a single arbitrator shall be formed to hear the grievance, unless the parties by mutual agreement want the grievance to be heard by a three-person arbitration board. RE: Joint Restructuring Consultation

The parties commit to creating an ongoing consultative model of communication regarding the re-structuring of the Library as discussed during negotiations.

This model will include but not be limited to maintaining an ongoing dialogue (regular agenda items) in the Labour-Management Committee regarding the following matters:

1. Progress by incumbents in the new Coordinator positions towards performing all of the duties of their new Job Descriptions.
2. The development of a training program for the incumbents in the new coordinator classifications. Within one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days following September 6, 2012, an employee survey will be jointly developed which will allow the incumbents in the new coordinator positions to identify the type of training they feel is required to perform the duties of their new positions.
3. Progress reports on achieving the new Library facility, including realistic time-lines.

The parties further agree that for two (2) years after September 6, 2012, the Labour-Management Committee shall meet every two (2) months to ensure the joint objective of providing bargaining unit employees and the Union an ongoing opportunity to have meaningful input regarding the above-referenced matters is met.
